Case Number: 10-0166-F

Subject: ALL RECORDS, INCLUDING ELECTRONIC RECORDS, CONCERNING THE USE OF THE SOCIAL NET-WORKING WEBSITES (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO FACEBOOK, MYSPACE, TWITTER, FLICKS AND OTHER ONLINE SOCIAL MEDIA) FOR INVESTIGATIVE (CRIMINAL OR OTHERWISE) ETC...

James Tucker
454 Shotwell Street
San Francisco, California 94110

Dear Mr. Tucker:

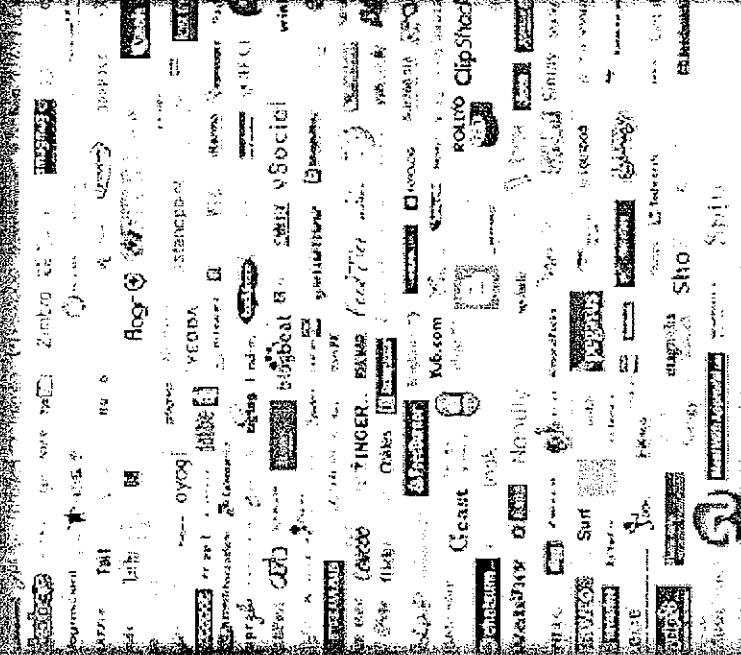

This letter responds to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Act (FOI/PA) request letters dated October 7, 2009 addressed to the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), FOI/Records Management Section, Operations Unit (SARO), seeking access to DEA records regarding the above subject. This letter amends our previous letter dated February 1, 2010 that informed you that no responsive records were found.

A supplemental search conducted after our letter of February 1, 2010, located the attached 23-page presentation titled "Social Networking" from the DEA Special Operations Division, Training Unit. 14 pages are released in full and 9 pages are released in part with redactions. No pages have been withheld in full. Redactions under Exemptions 6 and 7C were made to images and usernames on the 9 pages released in part, to safeguard against unwarranted invasions of personal privacy.

Sincerely,

Katherine L. Myrick
Chief, Operations Unit
FOI/Records Management Section

Islamic extremists coaxed to YouTube

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - Islamic extremists are being instructed on how to use the popular video-sharing site YouTube as a way to disseminate propaganda videos, a U.S.-based terrorism monitor said on Tuesday.

Militants are being encouraged to use the online site through postings on other Islamic forums on the Internet, according to the SITE Intelligence Group.

Last week, an extremist authored step-by-step instructions on posting video to YouTube, which he described as "one of the most famous and biggest international sites that publish sections of videos from all over the world."

The posting encourages readers to post scenes of Western forces coming under attack to, it says, "shame the Crusaders by publishing clips of videos showing their losses, which they hid for a long time."

Islamic extremists have long used the Internet as a tool to communicate with supporters and distribute propaganda but the latest posting specifically coaxes militants toward YouTube and touts it as a user-friendly tool.

"I say that the YouTube site is one of the easiest sites to record and upload the clips," the posting states, pointing readers to the software they might need to publish on the Internet.

I say regardless of this humiliation we proclaim

So let all creation hear and mankind listen closely to us.

If the night of pain is prolonged and wounded ummah becomes sleepless.

The breaking of dawn is coming and rising of the sun of honor is near

And the night of shame shall vanish.

We shall bring back the life on horror once more.

And we shall defeat those who disbelieve.

We shall build palaces of glory up high with its pillars the sunnah and qur'an

And we shall take pride in the quran at a time, when the people take pride in immorality and shame.

And we shall draw a map for islam, with it's borders honor, victory and establishment.

In an awakening of youth on whom the qur'an bestowed the dress of bravery not cowardice.

In their slogans is esteem and their word is a lesson

Myspace is "terrorist recruiting ground"

Kids like pizza, the mall and the overthrow of America

By Nick Farrell: Wednesday, 17 May 2006, 6:37 AM

A WRITER on Muslim terrorism in the United States claims that Myspace is the latest recruiting ground for al-Qaida backed groups.

Laura Mansfield, who has penned "One Nation under Allah" which includes her "undercover work" in US mosques to establish the terrorist threat in small town America, has suddenly focused her attention on MySpace.
